Mick

I understand the hood exhaust fan is not running and will not be repaired until Wednesday. I can have Joash stay another day but I would need a change order to cover costs. See attached proposal. If you'd like us to proceed please send a PO or sign the proposal ASAP

Thank you

I suggest that's the safe bet right now till units show up next week. Also punch day so we can get instant update on any to doos'. As one of the units is much bigger than original design load they can get approval instantly to make any adjustments needed.

Hi Will -

Checking in for Quarry Village. Can you get an update/ETA on where you're at for this project?

Thanks,
