Joe,
Your PO will be 10948 for the Sharonville Tab. As I told you yesterday at Miami this job is dragging. I don't see the building getting closed up for another few months.

Good morning. My understanding talking earlier this year that we will be doing the balancing for you guys on this project. I just want to confirm since I know things are moving along on site & I don't think we have received a PO yet. If you could send, we can start planning & getting engaged in the project.

Sincerely;
